

January 23-27, 2012
 District Plan for Celebrate Literacy Week Florida!
 Columbia County – Literacy Events

Ongoing District/School Events	Accelerated Reader, Guest readers –Columbia County School Board employees, Lake City officials and businessmen, Kiwanis Club members, Altrusa Club members (who will be donating books to the classrooms), Cross grade level buddy reading activities , author studies, Book Reviews and promotion of literacy week daily on morning broadcasts or announcements
Monday Jan. 23	Columbia City Elementary – Book trailer on morning broadcast, Million Minute Marathon with a focus on the David Swartz book “How Much is a Million?”, Begin monitoring wide reading goal for school of 1,000 books during the week, Introduce and begin the grade level book mark contests Eastside Elementary – Buddy Reading, Adult reader will read a sentence(s) on morning broadcast from a 5th grade level book and the first class that identifies the title will win a prize. Author, Mandi Williams will visit classrooms, Million Minute Marathon Five Points Elementary – Door Decorating Contest, The book “How much is a Million?” will be read on the morning message Fort White Elementary – Eric Carle author study throughout the week, Guest readers in classrooms Melrose Elementary – Favorite Characters dress-up day, Million Minutes Marathon, guest readers Niblack Elementary– Guest readers, Book fair begins Pinemount Elementary – Author studies every day in every grade throughout the week, Guest readers in every classroom, Book Talks and trivia games on morning broadcast Summers Elementary – Guest readers –Columbia County School Board employees, Lake City officials and businessmen, Kiwanis Club members, Altrusa Club members, School-wide “Drop Everything and Read” for the Million Minute Marathon from 1:30-1:50, Guest readers in classrooms–Columbia County School Board employees, Lake City officials and businessmen, Kiwanis Club members, Altrusa Club members, Cross grade level buddy reading activities Westside Elementary – Book Talk on morning broadcast, Special AR recognition, Sustained reading for the Million Minute Marathon Challenge Learning Center – Faculty and staff dress as their favorite book character. Students will guess the characters and the student with the most correct answers will win a prize. Lake City Middle – Four local dignitaries will be videoed reading a short story and answering questions regarding personal experiences with reading. An attempt is going to be made to video an LCMS student who is battling cancer at Shands reading a favorite book. These will be broadcast during the week. Richardson Middle – Million Minute Marathon Fort White High – IRISS alert to parents announcing literacy week to families, Kick-off with the book “How much is a Million?” by reading the book on morning broadcast, Book Talk by a student on morning broadcast, Art Classes will prepare book covers and posters to be displayed throughout the week Columbia High - Teachers their share favorite/inspirational book with every block

	(10-15 minutes @ beginning of class), Begin novel study in all English classes
Tuesday Jan.24	Columbia City Elementary – Book trailer on morning broadcast, “Guess that book” contest via morning broadcast, guest readers in classrooms Eastside Elementary – Buddy Reading, Adult reader will read a sentence(s) on morning broadcast from a 4th grade level book and the first class that identifies the title will win a prize on the morning message. Altrusa members will read to classes Five Points Elementary – Lake City Police Chief will read to first grade classes, Reading Coach will read a book Melrose Elementary – Design a bookmark by grade level, guest readers Niblack Elementary – Million Minute Marathon, Guest readers Pinemount Elementary – Author studies every day in every grade throughout the week, Guest readers in every classroom, Book Talks and trivia games on morning broadcast, Guest author, Mani Williams, Story character dress up day, school wide read-a-thon Summers Elementary - Guest reader with a service dog will read to Pre-K and ESE classes, Guest readers in classrooms–Columbia County School Board employees, Lake City officials and businessmen, Kiwanis Club members, Altrusa Club members, Cross grade level buddy reading activities Westside Elementary – Book Talk on morning broadcast, Special AR recognition, Community guest readers Challenge Learning Center – Guest storyteller shares a story with students Lake City Middle – Dignitary video on broadcast Richardson Middle – Laminated orange and green signs on each door displaying the title of the book the class is reading Columbia High - Book Swap before school and during Social Studies/History classes (Gold classes) Book-inspired art contest projects due (end of day) Fort White High - Student Book Talk on morning TV broadcast, Dear Author reading
Wednesday Jan. 25	Columbia City Elementary – Book trailer on morning broadcast, “Guess that book” contest via morning broadcast Eastside Elementary - Buddy Reading, Adult reader will read a sentence(s) on morning broadcast from a 3rd grade level book and the first class that identifies the title will win a prize. Five Points Elementary – Superintendent of Schools will read to kindergarten classes, Reading Coach will read a book on the morning message Melrose Elementary – Leadership team reads to classes, guest readers Niblack Elementary – Book Give Away – all students will get a book, Guest readers Pinemount Elementary – Author studies every day in every grade throughout the week, Guest readers in every classroom, Book Talks and trivia games on morning broadcast Summers Elementary - Guest readers in classrooms–Columbia County School Board employees, Lake City officials and businessmen, Kiwanis Club members, Altrusa Club members, Cross grade level buddy reading activities Westside Elementary – Book Talk on morning broadcast, Pirate Patty Vocabulary, Author visit, Challenge Learning Center – CHS Drama club visit (planned but not confirmed) Lake City Middle – Million Minute Marathon, Dignitary video on broadcast Richardson Middle – Guest readers

	Columbia High - Book Swap before school and during Social Studies/History classes (Purple classes), Walking word wall (students) done in all first-block classes Fort White High - Student Book Talk on morning TV broadcast, Dear Author reading
Thursday Jan. 26	Columbia City Elementary – Book trailer on morning broadcast, “Guess that book” contest via morning broadcast Eastside Elementary – Grade level “Favorite Book” poster contest winner announced, Buddy Reading, Adult reader will read a sentence(s) on morning broadcast from a 2nd grade level book and the first class that identifies the title will win a prize. Five Points Elementary – Lake City Fire Chief will read to classes, Reading Coach will read a book on the morning message Melrose Elementary – Favorite Book Day – Bring and share, Guest readers Niblack Elementary - Family Reading Night at the school, Guest readers Pinemount Elementary – Author studies every day in every grade throughout the week, Guest readers in every classroom, Book Talks and trivia games on morning broadcast Summers Elementary – Guest Author will hold assemblies during the day Westside Elementary – Book Talk on morning broadcast, Favorite book character day, Grade level chooses their “Favorite Author of the Day” and reads books from that author Challenge Learning Center – Author visit from Nathan Whitaker who will share how he became an author and he will give away some books Lake City Middle – Dignitary video on broadcast Richardson Middle – Book Bingo Columbia High - Gallery Showing and judging of art projects, Character dress-up day-encourage student and teacher participation, Evening Gallery showing/judging of book-inspired art (after school) – Book show preview (parents invited) Fort White High – Author breakfast – Feature readers in the percentage of AR, Student Book Talk on morning broadcast
Friday Jan. 27	Columbia City Elementary – Book trailer on morning broadcast, Cross grade level buddy reading, Announce winners of grade level bookmark contests, If goal of student’s reading 1,000 books is met, all students will go on the PE field and form the number 1,000. Bucket truck will come and take picture Eastside Elementary – Buddy Reading, Adult reader will read a sentence(s) on morning broadcast from a 1st grade level book and the first class that identifies the title will win a prize. Prize will be awarded to one class in each grade level for accumulating the most AR points during the week. Five Points Elementary – Altrusa members will be guest readers, Announce Door Decorating Winner, Reading Coach will read a book on the morning message Fort White Elementary – Author’s Tea for the FWES authors who published books Melrose Elementary – Read-a-thon Niblack Elementary – Students will do Book Mark Illustrations, Guest Readers, “Sock it to Me Reading” Pinemount Elementary – Author studies every day in every grade throughout the week, Guest readers in every classroom, Book Talks and trivia games on morning broadcast, Poster Contest Summers Elementary – Kindergarten teachers and students are dressing like favorite fairy tale characters, Fairy tale parade, Student Council members from 3-5 grade will have a walking field trip to daycare beside school to read to students

Westside Elementary - Book Talk on morning broadcast, Bookmark Day (all students will receive a bookmark)

Challenge Learning Center – Literacy Club will meet and do make-up and dress someone from the library

Lake City Middle – Dignitary video on broadcast

Richardson Middle – DEAR time

Columbia High - Book Fair all day (various events literary-related included)
Students will be guest readers at elementary schools (with their past teachers)
Winners of book-inspired art contest announced (at least two per grade level)

Fort White High – Author breakfast – Feature readers in the percentage of AR,
Student Book Talk on morning broadcast